Lake association takes case to Ontario Premier

Minden Lake ratepayers plan to take their case to the top. They plan to appeal the decision of the Ontario Cabinet with regard to a subdivision on the shore of Minden Lake, to the Premier William Davis.

The decision to take the matter to the Premier came following a meeting of the executive earlier this month.

President of the Minden Lake Ratepayers Association, Bern Berry, said the organization is "displeased and disappointed" at the entire process. He noted that the organization placed its faith in the system as represented by the Ontario Municipal Board and the hearing of evidence from both sides. "The whole procedure was a costly exercise in futility," he commented. Berry said association's and taxpayer's money had been wasted with the decision of the Cabinet to overturn the OMB ruling.

The Ontario Municipal Board earlier this year ruled in favour of the property owner's position with regard to the opening of a 25 lot subdivision on the shores of the lake. The development had been proposed by Elmar Hodson or Terralac Properties. The matter was presented to the OMB in April of last year and again in late December. Following the latest hearing the OMB chairman, W.H.J. Johnson, endorsed the property owners' protests. He suggested that any development should wait until a study has been completed to determine the ability of the lake to handle the impact.

Berry said earlier this week that the lake organization did not oppose development, but was simply concerned about over-development of the lake's shores. "People call it a lake, but it is in fact a 'wide' river," he stressed. "I'm not saying we're right about the number of lots which should be part of the subdivision, but we feel the matter should be carefully considered before being allowed to proceed."

Berry said the Ministry of Housing is prepared to carry out the necessary lake capacity study, but hasn't been asked to do so by anyone in authority.

Berry also expressed concern that the decision of the Cabinet offered no reasons. "We were told the deliberations were confidential," Berry stated. "We failed to see the purpose of the Ontario Municipal Board if Cabinet can arbitrarily overrule its decisions without explanation." The spokesman said the action of the Cabinet set a precedent that could affect other similar groups for years to come.

Berry admitted that the group was aware there was little chance the Premier would overrule his colleagues in the Cabinet, but felt they should make this one last effort in support of their case.

The association president also noted that the decision to allow the shoreline development to proceed involved more than the 25 lots. He suggested that the developer also plans to develop the 54 back lots which would add to the pressure on the lake environment. "The plans are ready to go," he stated.

Council meeting

A delegation of property owners, led by Berry, approached Anson, Hindon and Minden township council July 22 with regard to the Cabinet decision. The group wanted clarification of the order and reassurance that the park area proposed in the subdivision would not be developed.

The council could not shed any more light on the decision of the Cabinet. The Cabinet order left in place plans for the development of one lakeshore lot as parkland.

During the OMB hearing, the property owners had objected to this item because they felt it would bring undesirable elements to the lake.

"The park would be located over a mile from the highway," Berry commented,

Fire destroys home

A home near completion was destroyed by flames late Wednesday evening.

The home, the property of Mr. & Mrs. Fitzroy Kelly of Toronto, was located on Lot 18 Concession 8 in Minden Township, in the Blairhampton area.

According to Minden Fire Chief W. Jackson, the couple had visited their home on the weekend prior to the fire. He said there was no obvious cause for the fire and that an investigation by the Ontario Fire Marshall is being carried out. An inspector from that department visited the site of the blaze Tuesday.

Jackson said the fire had started on the outside of the home and somewhere underneath the structure. He said any further information would be contained in the Fire Marshall's report.

The blaze was reported at 11:40 p.m. The loss was estimated at $30,000 with another $10,000 lost in contents.

According to the chief, the couple had intended to retire to the home. It had been fully erected and portions of the interior were completed.

"far from the security of police or the passing public." He said the area would attract vandals who could damage adjoining properties as well.

The members of council were uncertain as to when the park would be developed, but noted that it would not be an immediate project of the township. Deputy Reeve Doug Pritchard, suggested any public park in that location would be at least five years away.

"I don't think council wants to see park development there right now," Reeve Lloyd Walker added.

Council agreed to look into the question of whether the township could sell the lot earmarked for park development and allow it to become private property.

Still waiting

In a related matter, Berry said the lake association is still waiting to receive the $1000 in costs assessed against the municipality following the OMB hearing. He noted that that portion of the decision was not overturned by the Cabinet and the municipality was still responsible for reimbursing the association.

"There appears to be some confusion as to whom the cheque should be made out," Berry commented. "We really don't care. The municipality could make it out to the Association, our lawyer or myself as president. We just want to get the money the OMB has ordered the township to pay us."

Open house a waste of time

Provincial efforts to explain recent changes in assessment procedures to summer residents in the Highlands appear to have been a waste of time and effort.

The Regional assessment office in Lindsay, responding to a request from the county council, agreed to hold two open houses and information sessions during the summer so that cottagers and others who are in the Highlands during the summer months only, could question the individuals who set the method by which real estate taxes are calculated for individual properties.

Those sessions were held Saturday in Minden and Haliburton. Four clerks and two secretaries manned the desks from 9 in the morning to 5 o'clock in the afternoon. They were armed with statistics, charts, detailed explanations, and pamphlets explaining the intricacies of the changes. An effort was made to let everyone know if open houses, including a number of advertisements in Catching a water-filled balloon requires a great deal of dexterity as this participant in the Stanhope Fun Day demonstrated Saturday. The balloon toss was one of the many games and contests which kept children and parents amused throughout the day. For more photographs of the day's events see page 5. local newspapers.

With all the preparation and pre-publicity, a spokesman for the assessment office in Lindsay reports that only 15 individuals attended at the Minden session and 7 showed up in Haliburton.

The spokesman was not in a position to comment on the turnout, but it was obvious the staff had been disappointed with the attendance.

"The county will receive a report on what took place on Saturday," the spokesman stated. "It will be up to them if we should hold another similar session."

By contrast, a similar open house held in January drew a large number of individuals. At one point on Saturday morning during the January session, at least ten individuals were waiting to meet with the assessors.

With the reception the authorities received last week, there is little likelihood they will be in any great hurry to return during the summer again.

Deadline set on work

Anson, Hindon and Minden council has granted the contractors in charge of the new library and cultural centre an extra ten days to complete their work or penalties will be imposed.

"All the work was supposed to have been completed on May 29," said reeve Lloyd Walker. "There is no reason for a delay."

Apparently, said Walker, there has been some trouble

Most stores open Monday

While communities across Ontario will be enjoying a holiday this coming Monday (August 3) most businesses and services in the Haliburton Highlands will remain open.

Over the past couple of years, in response to the growing number of visitors to this area in mid-summer, the local councils have decreed that the Civic Holiday, normally observed on the first Monday in August, will be taken in mid-September.

The change means that all major stores and services, including grocery stores and most downtown merchants will be open this coming Monday. In addition, most municipal services will also be open and operating.

The Setting

Fogg's, in the heart of what has become known as downtown Metropolitan Carnarvon, offers three interesting and totally different venues.

Mr. Fogg's, located upstairs is the heart of this restaurant. Here you'll find the best in Alaskan King Crab, char broiled steaks and prime rib of roast beef. The setting is quiet with candles flickering on the tables...windows overlook Mirror Lake...an ideal place for a lingering, intimate, evening.

The coffee shop at the entrance to the upper level serves daily luncheon specials and features the famous Fogg Burger, an interesting and tasty variation on the humble hamburger.

Downstairs at Fogg's is the other side of the coin. Here in the Foggy Bottom, the scene is lusty and full of life. The menu feature is a Fogg's Feast, a delightful mixture of chicken, ribs, seafood, onion rings, french fries and more. A similar feast with variations on the fish theme is also in the works.

Members of Minden's Business Improvement Area (BIA) board of directors met with a representative of the Ontario association of Architects Tuesday to discuss the feasibility of carrying out a CAUSE (Community Assist for Urban Study Effort) survey in the community's core. John Couchman, centre, represented the provincial group. Under the CAUSE program an architect and two students visit the community and prepare a report on how the core area could be improved. Seen with the architect are BIA chairman Gord Monk, left, Stu Brandon and Mae Wolfram. The BIA should know by next week whether the area has been accepted for the study.

Council split over increase

A decision to increase the salary of the municipality's road superintendent has split the Anson, Hindon and Minden Township council. The decision was contained in a by-law passed on the split vote at the July 22 meeting of the council.

Councillor Ed. Pergolas opposed the by-law while Councillor Larry Cummins abstained from the voting.

The by-law gave the road superintendent the same percentage wage increase as that received by the members of the road crew. That increase amounts to about 15%.

Pergolas objected to the raise on a number of counts. He said the council had already struck its budget for the year and that wage increases for all department heads were set at that time. He said this boost would give the road superintendent a larger increase than that received by other department heads. Pergolas said that the superintendent would receive about $800 more than his counterparts. He also indicated that the amount was not contained in this year's budget.

Cummins said he had abstained from the voting because he felt the matter needed more consideration. He said he was concerned about the impact the increase might have on other supervisors on the municipal staff.

Centre work with the interior walls because of moisture, however, the problem is not serious enough to cause extensive delays.

Walker also said some of the electrical work has yet to be finished although no deadline was set for its completion.

Council members are planning to visit the library with interior designer and painter, Gino Ziorjen, Thursday morning for an informal inspection. Ziorjen requested that council accompany him for the visit.

Editorial

Let them know

Vandals have struck once again in Minden leaving their ugly mark at Rotary Park. The stone fireplace at the park was damaged as were a number of picnic tables. Several life rings were also stolen from their shoreline stand.

Vandalism is not a new problem and certainly not one that can easily be eliminated. However, it is something, which, if allowed to continue unchecked, can turn a pleasant community into a scarred and desolate place. The extent of damage as a result of vandalism seems to be directly related to the degree of indifference shown by members of the society in which the action takes place.

Deterring vandalism means creating a proper attitude in the community. Adults who respect the property of others and the property held in common, help to foster similar attitudes in youth. Everyone has a responsibility to dissuade potential vandals from their actions. This can be as simple as letting individuals know verbally that vandalism is not tolerated in this community. It can also mean contacting the authorities promptly when such activity is witnessed or the potential appears to exist.

In a sense we are all policemen when it comes to the protection of public and private property. Unless we are willing to expend the effort to protect that which belongs to our neighbour and to the community as a whole, there is little chance our own property will be safe from vandals.

Caring about your community, and letting others know of your concern, is one of the best ways to deter those who want to destroy.

Monmouth marks 100th

It had the first Red Cross Outpost Hospital in Ontario, had its first settlers in the 1870's and it is 100 years old this year.

Monmouth township, in the county's southeastern region, is now becoming known as a progressive business and recreational area but first came to the attention of settlers because of its excellent agricultural potential.

In a letter to the Commissioner of Crown Lands sent around 1862, the comment was made that "60% to 70% of Monmouth was suitable for farming."

The area was surveyed in that same year and settlement grew because of the construction of both the Monck and the Burleigh roads. These roads intersect at Rock Lake and extend to Wilberforce and Poverty Lake and north to the Kennaway Road in Harcourt township.

By the time the I.B. & O railway came to Wilberforce, the agricultural boom had started to wane but in its place was the profitable cream and butter shipment. The abundance of rough grazing land was ideal for dairy cattle.

A short time later, a cheese factory opened up near the present United Church but burned several years later.

In 1871, a man named Thomas Clark, settled in Monmouth, at Hotspur, near the junction of the Monck Road and the Burnt River branch where he served for many years as the postmaster.

Soon many of the people moved away and the school was left with two students and one teacher.

The chief settlements in Monmouth, Tory Hill, Essonville and Wilberforce, all sprouted as a result of a nearby businesses and families setting down roots close by.

The largest of the three, Wilberforce, is divided into two regions. The southernmost area, near Poverty Lake, is the spot where an early settler, S.S. Ritchie had a store. Mitchell H. Ritchie and their father, Isaac, also owned property nearby.

A Douro man, William C. Dunsford, came to buy the sawmill from Robert Ritchie in 1885 and built a house for his family.

There was another mill at the time owned by William Hadley. The first post office at Poverty Lake served the north Wilberforce settlement where a man named Graham had bought 400 acres.

The blacksmith shop was owned by Tom Rowe on the Burleigh road extending from north Rock Lake.

The first school in Monmouth was a log cabin beside the United Church in south Wilberforce. The church was probably one of the County's oldest, built in 1858.

The story of the Red Cross outpost in Wilberforce began after World War I when the Red Cross Society was rewarded with a surplus of funds. Mrs. Plumtree, the president, agreed to finance an outpost hospital and the Monmouth Community Charitable Organization was formed to supply a building.

In 1921, the first resident Red Cross nurse named Miss Jackson, was hired and between 1921 and 1930, nine babies were born at the hospital.

The hospital provided the county with its first Public Health Service. The students at the 14 schools, previously without toxoid or immunization, now had access to this protection.

Essonville was first started with farms scattered over a three mile radius with a post office, church and school as the base.

Some early settlers included Albert and Foster Gibson, John Roscoe and George Hammel, the Paynes, Madills and the McCraes.

Essonville's Anglican Church was built around 1890, during which Rev. Waltham served as minister. Today, the Waltham Trail is a tribute to this early settler.

A teacher in Essonville was paid $16 per month. Some of the first teachers were Miss Matchet of Cobocok, Miss Grace Rogers of Minden and Miss Jennie Taylor, later Mrs. Jane Fairfield.

In 1881, an Apsley man, John Anderson, Crown Lands agent and postmaster, built a farm on a hilltop in Monmouth township.

A few months before the post office opened, Alexander Niven, the Liberal candidate for the provincial election, polled one vote in the area.

Niven suggested, with an air of sarcasm, the new post office be called "Tory Hill" and the local people took him seriously.

Other tales surround the origin of the name Tory Hill but the name still holds today.

Delving into a few of the other area place names, it is interesting to note the story of Poverty Lake. A Peterborough hunting party staying in the area, ran out of supplies on the shores of the lake. Attempts to kill a deer failed and in exasperation, the named the place Poverty Lake.

McCue Lake is also the source of a story. It is said a hunter of that name, returned home from the area empty handed. As if that were not enough, he fell into the water. As a sort of tribute, his friends dubbed the lake, McCue.

Monmouth township is rich with history, but then, after 100 years, there is much to remember and many memories to preserve.

Township is growing: Reeve

Monmouth reeve, Keith Tallman, has seen many changes in his township, not just during his three terms as reeve but as a man who was born and raised in the area.

"We're enjoying moderate growth," said Tallman, in an interview last week. "As far as our economy is going, it's definitely on the upswing."

He said their newest business, an IGA store, will help tremendously.

Tallman said the township has spent $30,000 on road improvements and resurfacing and is in the process of installing lights for the ball park and tennis courts.

In addition, Tallman said, there are plans to expand the area's playground and other recreational facilities.

Tallman said he is pleased with the township's progress and says he hopes it will improve in the future.

Letters

Editor's note: The following is an open letter sent to the Reeve and residents of Bancroft. The author felt the message might be of interest to our readers.

Dear Mayor and Residents:

It is very sad, your decision to keep out from your unused mines, the contaminated Scarborough soil. The government was wrong in dropping this on you unasked, but they are not the ones who will suffer. Nor will you suffer from a bit more of the same kind of soil already in the mines.

There are and will be more sufferers, most of them the children unknowingly played in these contaminated backyards. These children do not understand what the fuss is all about but their worried parents do. How would you feel if these had been your children, your grandchildren.

Please don't let these children suffer because you are angry with government handling of this matter. Please don't give the parents more heartaches than they already have. I care what happens to these children and I don't even know them or their parents. Couldn't you please reconsider and let this soil be dumped in the mines. There is no safe place in Scarborough to put this soil, and Canada's children should not have to suffer because of government.

Mrs. Carole M. Lidgold,
Scarborough, Ontario.

Family fun in Stanhope

Every inch counts in longest tall contest

Potter's wheel does double duty

Fire fighting demonstration

Once again this year, the Stanhope Fun Day proved to be a popular success. Families from all over the county converged on the recreation field at the firehall for a day filled with races, contests, dramatic demonstrations, quiet restful corners and tasty food.

The field day competitions were again the hit of the day with the youngsters. While the winners of the various events received ribbons for their efforts, all youngsters were awarded tokens recognizing their participation.

Organizer Ann Barker noted that the senior citizens tea in the community centre drew the largest crowd of the Fun Day in its three year history.

A fire fighting demonstration during the afternoon proved to be a crowd pleaser. Members of the Stanhope Fire Department used mountains of foam to extinguish a blaze set in a car. On the other side of the field, the familiar clang of horseshoes sounded throughout the day.

The afternoon was topped off with a dog show.

Participants and organizers were in agreement that the day was a success.

FROM THE CHAMBER

By Bob Stinson

Many businessmen had hoped that at least one benefit would be derived from the painful experience that we are going through these days with the general economy. Unions, it was felt, would eventually come to realize that there has to be a limit to the demands they can make and the hardships they can cause the public. If the postal strike now in process is any indication, the unions are far from learning this lesson and they are coming very close to killing the goose that lays the golden eggs. With the rapid growth of reliable courier services and the declining service provided by the postal services, business and the public at large, are finding many ways of doing without their services.

In the meantime small business suffers and some who rely very heavily on the mail, go under. The government says there has been no great pressure from the private sector to end the strike - of course the fact that we cannot write them a letter may have some bearing on that. The Canadian Chamber of Commerce has urged the government not to give in to the extravagant demands, but to legislate the "workers" back on the job. Our federal members simply voted themselves a big raise and went on holidays.

Those who recall the beginning of unions will agree they were necessary at that time, since many workers were being victimized by their employers. Now it has gone full cycle and the unions are taking advantage of us - all of us. There was even an example of this last week when small business owners picketed the pickets at the main post office in Toronto. Before there is any hope of getting our economy under control we need laws and we need to enforce those laws to get the unions under control. To do this, we need the politicians who have the courage to do it.

By the way, don't forget the Chamber will help move mail within the county. In Minden bring mail to the Chamber office, in Haliburton to the Outreach office, in Wilberforce Agnew's Store, in Gooderham Barr's Store and in Dorset McEachern Real Estate to be mailed at other post offices within the county.

Terri's Thrift Shop is a welcome new addition to the Minden retail sector. Terri and George Gudgeon were already members of our Chamber in connection with their Freezer Plan distributorship and have now taken on their new venture. In these times of economizing on everything, their services should certainly be well accepted.

Rodlen Aircraft Inc., is another new member of the Chamber. This company, under the direction of president Len Creelman and his brother Roger, is developing a kit for an amphibious single engine aircraft of unique and advanced design. They are presently working on the final prototype and anticipate actually being into production models within the next year. Len would be interested in talking to anyone interested in purchasing equity shares in this new venture and he may be reached at 457-1438.

Congratulations to Haliburton Lodge on Drag Lake who have finally been given a telephone. Owners Carla and George Landsperger have been operating their business with extreme difficulty over the last number of years while awaiting this service and now that it is available, just watch them grow!

What's New

Our brand new county maps complete with suggested tours are now available through the Chamber and they retail for 50¢. We will attempt to get around to members with them as quickly as possible but if you are near the Chamber Office drop in and get a supply now. We also have a fresh supply of Ritchie Falls and White Water Park post cards now available.

At Moore's Falls on Highway 35 James and Barbara Kirk have this summer installed a new snack bar known as B.J.'s Snack Bar and are off to a busy, successful beginning. They have cottaged on Gull Lake for a number of years and are looking forward to living here and operating the business all year round. This will certainly be a plus for the snowmobilers travelling through that area.

Next door to them you will notice also a new Real Estate office manned by our old friend Paul Pilon, former owner and founder of the Bonaventure Paul is operating the office for Don Stradeski Real Estate and we welcome him back as a member of the business community once again.

Oakview Lodge at Little Hawk landing has new owners and we welcome Sisto and Elia Comilli to the Highlands. Since the lodge has been closed for some time it will require extensive alterations before they are ready to operate at full scale but they are very enthusiastic about this new venture and we wish them much success.

Haliburton, Minden and West Guilford Coin Laundries are now all under the common ownership of Sid Cooper and we are pleased to say that Haliburton residents will now be provided with the same clean and reliable facilities the other two centres have provided. The West Guilford laundry is closed Monday and Friday from 8:00 pm. to 8:00 am and the Minden Laundry on Tuesday and Friday from 9:00 pm to 8:00 am to allow them to do camp laundry but the Haliburton laundry is open 24 hours a day throughout the summer.

Coming Events

This weekend it's the annual Gooderham Old Time Horseshoe Days featuring of course a horseshoe tournament, midway, dances, a tug-of-war and a demolition derby over the three fun packed days.

On Sunday, August 2, "Metro Carnarvon" is presenting their second annual "Open Air Country and Western Concert" at Stanhope Airport beginning at 12 noon. Featured will be the Jeff Barry Band, famous for their latest release 'North to Carnarvon' along with special guests Roy Sponaugh,

New tickets

Minden is going to have new parking tickets but don't be in any hurry to see what they look like. By-law officer, Dick Schell, brought the matter up at Anson, Hindon and Minden July 22.

The new tickets are designed so that offenders can pay their fines within 48 hours at the township office. "It'll save going to court," said Schell.

The tickets will have the driver's name, licence number, Schell's name, the offence committed, the date and location and time of the infringement.

Schell said the tickets cover a wide range of infractions such as parking near hydrants and parking too close to the corner.

Council agreed to purchase 500 of the tickets and keep the fines to $10.00.

Austrian horses a hit with local breeder

by Sue Scott

Many years ago a breed of horse roamed the Austrian mountains. They were small and built chiefly for work on the rugged terrain. Few people knew about them and even today, Haflingers are unique among the world's breeds.

Haflingers originated from the Tyrol, a region in the eastern Austrian Alps that has belonged to Italy since 1919.

A village near Meran, Italy, called Hafling not surprisingly, inspired the name for this new horse.

Several American farms heard about the Haflingers and decided to introduce them to North America.

In 1976, the Haflinger Association of America was formed under the auspices of the already established World Haflinger Federation. Now, there are approximately 15 member associations around the world.

Recent figures estimate the number of Haflingers at more than 25,000 and that number is constantly rising.

In Canada, the number of Haflinger breeders is small. In Ontario, there are a few, including Clayton Cameron from Norland.

Clayton started breeding Haflingers in 1978 and now boasts nine, four colts, four mares and a stud.

He says his chief purpose for having this special horse is to breed and then to sell the colts.

Interestingly Haflinger mares should not be bred until they are three years old and none should be worked until four years of age.

Clayton says when he heard about the Haflinger, he knew he had to give them a try.

"They were new and I wanted to try something new as an experiment," he says.

Versatile animals

Haflingers are pure-bred animals and although they make excellent work horses, they can also be used for riding, driving and pulling. In Europe, the present trend is to use them for riding.

"They're a glorified pony," says Clayton. Haflingers range in height from 52 to 56 inches. The head is flat and broad and somewhat short.

In describing the horse, one cannot overlook its strong, tapered legs to small, hard hooves. This allows easy movement and a long stride.

Clayton says the colors of the Haflinger vary. His stud is a beautiful golden honey color while a couple of his others are black and grey.

Another redeeming feature about the Haflinger is their mild temperament. "They're friendly," says Clayton. "At least, that's what they told me when I bought them."

While some horses shy away from strangers and some know immediately if a person is wary of them, Haflingers come right up and nudge you playfully and do not get agitated if pushed away gently.

Easy nature

One of the reasons for the good nature of the Haflinger may be that they mature slowly. Their average life span is 34 years. They are not worked hard when they are young but gradually become accustomed to their environment and their owners' personality.

Haflingers are graceful sprightly horses and their versatility makes them perfect for the farm or riding stable.

Clayton Cameron is pleased with the way his Haflingers have progressed but he says he has no plans right now to buy any additional horses.

Although he doesn't like to be referred to as one of the largest breeders in Canada, nine Haflingers is the largest in this part of Ontario.

But the popularity seems to be growing and it won't be long before Haflingers become as well known as the Clydesdale, Palomino and Morgan. But right now, people willing to take a chance on this new breed will be pleasantly surprised.

Honesty rewarded

There are still some honest people in the world and one of them, a Haliburton man, received a reward for his good deed.

Buck Woods found a purse on Sunday night and immediately turned it over to Constable Al Bibby.

When the purse was checked for identification, it was found to contain close to $1500 and some valuable jewellery.

Marguerite Mamann of Willowdale, Ontario, got her purse back and as a gesture of thanks, gave Woods $200 as a reward.

Dune buggy mishap

Two men riding in a dune buggy were seriously injured when the vehicle slid into a ditch and rolled over.

Early Sunday morning, Alex Spadafora, 28, of Toronto, was driving on the Brady Lake Road with a passenger, 17 year old Tom Hards of Toronto, when the accident occurred.

Spadafora received internal injuries while Hards suffered a broken ankle. Both were taken to Lindsay Hospital.

Another passenger, Spadafora's wife, escaped without injury.

Police report charges may be laid in the incident. Investigation was by Constable Terry Brown.

Serious injury

A Quebec man is in Sunnybrook Hospital in Toronto with serious injuries after his car missed a curve and hit some trees.

Seventeen year old Robert Josephson of Hampstead, Quebec, was driving a 1981 Toyota on Kashagawigamog Road early Sunday morning when the accident occurred.

He has been charged with careless driving. The investigating officer was Constable Terry Brown.

Carlsberg team featured at county fair

This year's Haliburton County Fair will have an added attraction, the Carlsberg Championship Team and Wagon. The team will be part of the August parade and on display at the fairgrounds.

The team and wagon is a symbol of the tradition and craftsmanship so long associated with Carlsberg Breweries.

More than a century ago when Carlsberg was first introduced, the horse-drawn brewery wagon was an impressive sight, clattering through the cobbled streets of Copenhagen.

As one of the world's largest and most superbly built brewery wagons, the Carlsberg wagon was crafted entirely from solid oak and decorated by two of Canada's foremost woodcarvers.

Beneath the driver's seat is a beautiful carving of a mermaid surrounded by sea horses by Antonio Galati.

The word "Carlsberg" on the sides of the wagon, with the traditional Royal Danish Crown and the carving of Neptune and the horseheads on the wagon's tailgate, are the work of J.J. Bourgault. The box of the wagon has been hand-rubbed and polished and its natural finish enhanced by 15 coats of varnish. It carries 17 oak beer barrels, replicas of those first used by the Carlsberg Breweries in Copenhagen.

No less than eight Belgian show horses comprise the Carlsberg Team. Belgians were chosen for their fine breeding, tremendous strength and their calm disposition.

One of the striking features of the Carlsberg Team is the ornate, patent-leather harness. It was hand-made by Samuel Freedman, one of the few Canadian harness makers still practising his craft. The three crowns topping each horse's collar and all of the wagon's fittings were hand-forged. Even the side lamps are authentic.

Last year for race

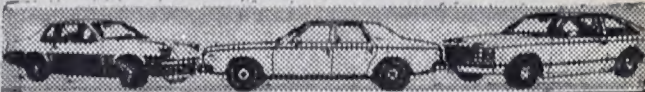

This year will mark the twentieth and last edition of the S.F. Stinson Memorial Canoe Race. The event has been held each year to commemorate a similar race between area loggers and Indians over 100 years ago.

The race is run from the eddy at Rotary Park to the bridge in downtown Minden. The event is scheduled for July 29 with the paddlers reaching the finish line just prior to the Rotary Carnival parade.

Dr. Stinson, grandson of the man for whom the race is named, noted that only 16 foot, cedar strip, canvas covered canoes will be allowed to participate in this year's event. He said the restriction is to help make the competition more equitable. Entries have been invited from area camps, with two canoes only from each. Those not affiliated with Highlands camps are welcome to take part. Participants are asked to be at Rotary Park by 6 p.m. July 29 for pre-race instructions.

Vandals damage park facilities

It's going to cost $500 to repair the damage done to the fireplace at Minden's Rotary Park.

The damage was done in mid-June at which time, two of the life-saving rings were stolen and a picnic table was destroyed.

Anson, Hindon and Minden council heard a report on the vandalism from clerk, Elinor Burke at last week's meeting. She said the $500 estimate had been submitted in a written report from an insurance agent.

The township has a deductibility clause in its insurance policy which means it will have to pay half the cost.

'Everyone is the same': Lee enjoys Mexico

"I think the big thing I learned was that everyone in the world is the same. A border line, the colour of someone's skin or the language they speak doesn't change anything. Underneath all those minor differences we are all the same."

That was the reaction of 18 year old Lee Potter in describing her experience during the past year as an exchange student in Mexico. The Soyers Lake resident returned home June 2 and has been busy since then fitting back into life in the Highlands and extolling the virtues of the country which was her home for almost a year.

"It is an experience that I will never forget," Lee commented, "it has given me the travel bug. I want to see other parts of the world and return to Mexico."

She has already made plans to return to the city of Saltillo in northern Mexico next March. "I have left many friends behind in that community," Lee said.

During her stay in that community she was the guest of two families. She became a part of their family life and attended school with Mexicans of her age group. When she first arrived she attended an upper class school which catered to the elite of the city. It was a smaller school and, while she enjoyed her stay there, many of the students were trying to learn English. As a result her efforts to learn Spanish were thwarted.

Part way through the year she changed schools and attended the public institution. A larger cross section of the community was represented in the student population at this school. It was here that her own abilities in Spanish grew to the point where she became fluent in the language.

One of the main differences between the Canadian and Mexican societies which Lee noticed was the status of women. While the liberation movement has definitely left its mark on Canadian Society, many of the old traditions still hold sway in Mexico. "Just a year ago," she notes, "the Mexican government passed an equality act, but tradition and custom still rule."

While in Saltillo, Lee met four other Rotary exchange students, two from Canada and two from the United States.

Lee returns to her old alma mater this fall to start her grade 13 studies at HHSS. During the summer she is employed at Deer Lodge on Lake Kashagawigamog.

While she is happy to be back in Haliburton County, she says she will always remember her time in Mexico as a happy one.

Lost day starts year overseas

In the middle of next month, a 17 year old girl from the Highlands will lose a day. August 15 will simply disappear for Kathy MacGregor.

Highlands area. Kathy is taking two quarts of our own maple syrup, an expensive and much sought after delicacy in New Zealand, to present to her hosts. Her flight leaves Toronto August 14 on a 20 hour odyssey that sees stops in Vancouver, Honolulu, Fiji, Auckland and finally Wellington. As to the day she will lose when she crosses the date line, she'll get it back when she returns to Canada August 9, 1982.

Kathy is the daughter of Jack and Evelyn MacGregor. They live at Camp Kandalore. Kathy has agreed to share her experiences with our readers through the letters she sends home (once the postal service is operational here again.) This is a tradition which started with Lorraine Perry two years ago in Belgium and continued last year with Lee Potter in Mexico. We look forward to hearing about Kathy's experiences in the land of the Kiwi, down under.

Kathy MacGregor

she crosses the international date line in the centre of the Pacific Ocean on her way to New Zealand. Kathy is the latest in a number of exchange students who will represent this community overseas. Her participation in the program is sponsored by the Minden Rotary Club.

Kathy is leaving this area in the middle of the summer season, bound for a country in the middle of winter. Fortunately her destination, Carterton on the North Island, experiences only a wet winter.

Her new home for a year is in the heart of an important agricultural region of the North Island. Sheep farming is of particular importance where she will be living. The community of Carterton has a population of approximately 10,000 and is located 50 miles north of Wellington.

New Zealand was not Kathy's first choice. "I wanted to go to Australia, but there were no openings there," she comments. "New Zealand was my second option and that was accepted." Her interest in that part of the world came through a school project. She also admits that she is 'chicken' about learning a new language.

Like previous exchange students, Kathy will be taking an abundance of local and Canadian items with her. She has a variety of Canadian flags and maple leaf pins, booklets on the Highlands, stickers that promote Ontario and other souvenirs to exchange with the new friends she'll meet in New Zealand.

Two special gifts she is packing for her host families will truly reflect the Great weekend for Legion carnival

The sound of midway concessionaires, children squealing with excitement on the rides and the rousing sound of marching bands were among the highlights at last weekend's Legion Carnival in Haliburton.

Activities began Friday night with various rides and amusements and a dance.

Saturday afternoon, a spectacular parade was staged, while in the arena grounds, activities continued.

In the evening, the carnival was capped with a dance with music by "Margie and the Country Gentlemen."

Top spot eludes Hustlers

The Minden Rockcliffe Hustlers have dropped to second place in the Tri-County Softball League. The local team is half a game out of the lead following a defeat last Tuesday at the hands of Lindsay York Tavern. They recovered the lead momentarily later in the week when they defeated Woodville 2-1 Thursday night, but lost that edge Sunday when York Tavern defeated Bobcaygeon 5-4.

The Tuesday night contest saw the Lindsay team jump into the lead on a home run in the first inning. A second homer in the third added to their margin.

The Hustlers responded with a solo home run from Craig Stamp in the bottom of the third. However, Lindsay added three runs in the fourth frame to hold a convincing 5-1 lead.

Minden battled back with a single run in the bottom of the fourth and another in the sixth, but were unable to catch the leaders. This was the first home game loss for the Hustlers this season.

Craig Stamp took the loss for the local team while Don Elliott was the winner.

Thursday evening

The Hustlers bounced back Thursday evening when they defeated Woodville 2-1 in a close contest which belonged to the pitchers. Jack Snell, on the mound for Minden, faced only 23 batters during the game while Stu Highman, pitching for Woodville faced 26.

The Woodville run came on the only Minden error of the game.

Rookie Greg Newell took credit for all of Minden's runs, popping a triple in the fifth inning and a single in the seventh to move the runners across the plate.

The Hustlers played Lindsay Grand Hotel last night (Tuesday) and with a win could have moved into first place again. (We'll have a report on that game in next week's paper.) Wednesday evening Bobcaygeon will be in Minden. Game time is 8 p.m.

The local squad will also be hosting a tournament at the Minden diamond August 21-22-23. Organizers expect 16 teams to be in attendance. More details will be released as the date draws near.

Police check nets trio

When OPP Constables Jim Solway and Brian Bowers stopped a car on the highway early Sunday morning, they probably had little idea what they were getting involved in.

The car, containing two men and a woman, was stopped on Highway 35, near Minden, and as soon as the car stopped, the driver jumped out and ran into the bush.

As police were checking the licence number, they found the plates were stolen and the three people were suspects in multiple break and enter charges in the Toronto area.

Kent Colby and Barbara Hennings, both 17, were arrested and turned over to the Metro Police.

In the meantime, it was discovered the driver of the car, Randal Steven Steele, 24, had escaped from Collins Bay Institution, near Kingston, in mid-June and a Canada-wide Warrant had been issued for his arrest.

In making his getaway, Steele had taken a ride south on the highway and the Coboconk OPP detachment was able to stop the car. However, once again, Steele escaped into the bush.

A search involving Minden, Coboconk and Peterborough, canine team and an OPP helicopter resulted in the apprehension of Steele late Sunday afternoon.

Steele was returned to Metro police and was charged with several counts of breaking and entering and theft.

Henning has also been charged with harbouring a criminal.

Mrs. Taylor Kernohan attended the wedding of her grandson Jerry Graham and Sandra Coates in St. Thomas.

There was a fairly good crowd at the Firehall for the Deckhands Puppeteers, Cathie Chisholm, Nancy Powers and Elizabeth Krickfalusi, when they presented Charlene and Claudine and the Heffalump Hunt. These girls are from Kingston and perform for Lake Ontario Regional Services and will have some hundred performances. Another show will be done at the Firehall late in August.

Guests during the month of July with Hazel and Nelson Austen, have been Mr. & Mrs. Eric Durant of Glace Bay, N.S. and Hilda O'Keefe of Toronto. The ladies are Hazel's sisters.

Sincere sympathy goes to the families and friends of the late, Bill Deacon, Stephen Rose, Mrs. Charles Yakeman and Mrs. Earl Kent, whose funerals were since last week.

Don't forget these people at Hyland Crest having birthdays in August. Ethel Robinson, August 6, Dorothy Martin, August 10, Isabella Avery, August 16, Eliza Chalmers, August 19, Viola Deumo, August 27 Alberta Webber, August 29 and Ernest Berry on August 25.

There was a goodly crowd at the slide presentation by Rev. Elliott last Wednesday on English Cathedrals and scenery of Britain. An English tea was served after both afternoon and evening presentations.

Visiting Canning Lake this summer is Miss Randa McClary from Port Coquitlam, B.C., staying with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ballentine at Bally Hoose.

The Puffer Family at Clear Lake, Carol, Thomas and Gerald, hosted Mr. Gary Greenway of Toronto at their cottage for the past week.

Mr. & Mrs. Don Balcome of Dundas called on the Bill Moores on their way to Parry Sound.

Guest with the Phil Robinsons one day last week was Albert Playter of Orillia.

Friends have learned of the death of John Miller (former resident) on July 4.

I am content, whatever winds are blowing, What'er of sun and rain each day may bring, While I have God and neighbours and friends, I am content and I shall smile and sing.

Anon

Guests with the Bob Davidsons of Minden Lake, included Mr. & Mrs. Gordie Kiley, Mr. & Mrs. Nick Bretzer, Mr. & Mrs. Claude Blanchette, all of Ottawa.

All good wishes to Mrs. Stephen Page who is presently a patient at the local hospital.

Dale Henderson and friends from Roseneath spent the weekend with the former's grandparents, Mary and Lyman Cox.

Noticed there are many raffles going on, several on afghans, one on money and last weekend, one started on a canoe for the Curling Club.

Guests last week with Rheta and Clare Brown were former residents, Marcella and Bob Wright of St. Catharines.

Foley and Val Kubin of Kapuskasing have been visiting with Mrs. Fred Stamp and other relatives.

Mrs. Alec Taylor (Bea) is

Hi! Hope all are enjoying the weather, the holidays, the company. All the goings on like swimming, sliderides, the garage sales. Summer sure is a fun time!

Doug and Mrs. Fleming with their children, are up to their cottage for holidays.

Lynn and Tom Astbury are up to their cottage for the weekend.

Mr. & Mrs. Adamson with their family, the Hagerman's, were back up to their cottage on the weekend, along with their granddaughter Frances Ellis.

Mr & Mrs Juergen Noetzel are up to the cottage on their holidays.

The Learn's are up to the cottage for the weekend.

Mrs. Ellis was up at her cottage for her holidays.

Mr. & Mrs. Glaser are up from Toronto for the weekend.

Dianne Clayton has come home to start her scholarship.

Freda Harrison, Vera Ward and Lil Porter spent Friday in Peterborough. I am pleased to hear Freda is feeling much better now.

Mrs. Bedlington is feeling well enough to visit with her family, Major and Mrs. Lewis. We hope she continues to improve and perhaps we'll get a chance to visit with her.

The Haliburton Home Support Service for Senior Citizens, is having their Dinner at the Wagon Wheel on August 11. It was to be nearer the holiday weekend as these dinners take place every two weeks, but because of the holiday and people might be away or have company, the time was changed. It is a social time with card games after dinner. So for those who are interested, please get in touch with Isobel Harrison at 286-2566 for reservations. The dinner is at 12 o'clock noon and costs $3.00. Should you have a reservation and have to cancel, please get in touch home again after attending her grandson's wedding in New York City.

Wedding showers were held last week with lovely gifts forthcoming for Luanne McKnight and Bessie Cameron, brides-to-be.

Paul Davidson of Thornbury has been visiting with his parents Mr. & Mrs. George Davidson.

August 11 will be the next luncheon at 12 noon at the Wagon Wheel for Senior Citizens on Haliburton County Home Support Services, for your reservatwith Mrs. Hargison.

The advance tickets for the Minden and District Horticultural Society Flower Show are being sold now by some of the Junior gardeners. These tickets are only one dollar, but if you don't have a ticket, it will cost $1.50 at the door. So get your tickets now for the August 20 and 21, second annual flower show. I hope to see you there.

So sorry to hear of the passing away of Mrs. Jean Kent on Friday July 24. Our condolences and prayers are with her family at this time.

Mrs. Helen Probst, assistant to Dr. Timothy Costello, President of Adelphi University in Garden City, L.I., will be the guest of Mrs. Yvonne Guido and her father Mr. Walter Noice of Lutterworth Estates.

Hint of the week

Clean typewriter type with nailpolish remover, lighter fluid, alcohol or ammonia. Apply it with a small paintbrush or an old toothbrush. Make sure the room is well ventilated while you are working.

Scientists have discovered so many substitutes that it's hard to remember what was originally needed.

KID'S KORNER Summer

Deer prance around in our land
They stretch their necks
To reach the apples in the trees
Every night we go out quietly
And try to spot them
I sprinkle salt on the rocks
So they can lick it
With beautiful antlers
They gracefully run about the fields
Till they see us
They stop and stare
And run

ions call 286-2566 or 286-1139, cards games will be played after the luncheon.

John Hooper of Ottawa is visiting Mr. & Mrs. Jim Dugan this week.

Special speaker at the Horticultural Society on August 4 at 7:30 p.m. at the Municipal Building will be Russell Gomme, Ontario Secretary. Members, by the way, please turn in those empty Kraft dressing bottles.

Haliburton County Public Library is having Open House at their office on Mountain Street Wednesday August 5 from 2 - 5 p.m.

Weather keeps fair, little rain on Sunday, nice again today. Cheerio until next time.

Soyers Lake annual meeting

The Soyers Lake Rate Payer's Association Inc. is active throughout the year under its able Chairman, Lew McCarriston, and has dealt with many issues affecting both cottagers and year-round residents as well as arranging summer programmes.

The spring meeting was held in May at the PineStone Inn. Reports were received that the level of pollution in the lake has been holding steady with no notable deterioration. A lake survey carried out by the Ministry of the Environment showed that a number of the older sewage systems were sub-standard according to current regulations, and steps have been taken to have these corrected.

The Ministry of Natural Resources has paved the way for the erection of speed limit signs in the narrows between Soyers Lake and Kashagawigamog. Volunteers were found to help dismantle the beaver dam which persistently appears each fall under the bridge.

During the past winter, one cottage owner had problems with beaver eating a large number of his oak trees. No other property damage or break-ins were reported. Help had been extended to a number of snowbound motorists, and it was hoped that a sign would be erected to indicate that Soyers Lake Road is not a through road in winter.

The Association received from the Ministry an outline regarding road allowances. It was understood that regulations for dealing with road allowances would come from the county in due course.

The negotiations concerning the Hislop property development were satisfactorily resolved between Couchiching Development on the one hand and Bert Tait and Lew McCarriston representing the Association on the other. The plan finally agreed upon provided for 12 lots instead of the original 18, with an approximate frontage of 105'. The outcome was believed to be beneficial to all concerned, especially the wildlife presently inhabiting this area of the lake.

The Soyers Lake Association has kept in touch with the Federation of Ontario Cottager's Association and has sent representatives to four meetings held in Toronto. Information was brought back on the problems of acid rain, roadway allowances and insurance rates for cottagers.

Interest in sailing on the lake has increased, as evidenced by the growing number of brightly-coloured sails to be seen at weekends. Marnie Blair is again in charge of the programme.

Joe Smith is the official recorder of catches in this year's Fish Derby, which runs throughout the summer. Fish must be caught by members, or by their family or friends and witnessed by a member.

It is hoped that as many people as possible will attend the annual roast, which is the highlight of the Association's yearly programme. The date of this year's Corn Roast is August 22, and the location is the flats at the north end of the lake.

Plans are under way for a day-long programme of canoe and sailboat races. At 6:30 p.m. the corn-tubs will begin steaming and the wieners sizzling. This is a grand opportunity for neighbours around the lake to get together and have an enjoyable evening. Gord Ogg and his helpers will again be doing the honours.

The Association membership is conscious that much behind-the-scenes work is done by the hard-working executive committee on their behalf. Now that the Association is incorporated, it has a much stronger voice and will continue to watch issues affecting its members and initiate appropriate action.

(Submitted by Bruce Birrell, public relation's spokesman for the Soyers Lake Rate Payers' Association.)
